Well good morning
Tell me how did you sleep last night
Your still smiling
So we must have done something right
Don't feel guilty
Because you turned to me last night

We ain't done nothing wrong
We've just been lonely to long
No we ain't done nothing wrong
We've just been lonely to long

It's only natural
When you've been to long in the dark
Look for comfort
And to warm yourself by the fire
Were just afraid
We might get our fingers burnt

But we ain't done nothing wrong
We've just been lonely to long
No we ain't done nothing wrong
We've just been lonely to long

Nothing's wrong that can't be cured
Without your love
All you need is someone like me
To be sure of
To be your love

I'll be waiting
Standing right outside your heart
And I'll be watching
For the slightest sign of a spark
And I'll be here
If you should want to turn to me

Cause we ain't done nothing wrong
We've just been lonely to long
No we ain't done nothing wrong
We've just been lonely to long
We ain't done nothing wrong

We've both been lonely to long
Just been lonely to long
