When you said you love me
I believed it was true, it was true
And now you say you're leavin'
Now you got me needin' you
You go and say we're through

You say nothing last forever
That's so easy
You can walk away
But you won't be free

You can run every time we touch
You can run when you feel too much
You can lie all alone in the dark
You can run from the one you need
You can run from the memories
But you can't run away from your heart

Said our love was real, babe
More than any love you knew
It was good to you
But when I held you near me
I could feel all the fear in you
Runnin' through and through

You think tears are all that lie
In true loves shadow
There's no place that you can run
Our love won't follow

You can run every time we touch
You can run when you feel too much
You can lie all alone in the dark
You can run from the one you need
You can run from the memories
But you can't run away from your heart

You can run every time we touch
You can run when you feel too much
You can lie all alone in the dark
You can run from the one you need
You can run from the memories

But you can't run away from your heart

No, you can't run away from your heart
