Who told you about a man without fear
Who told you about a god who does not care
Who told you about a pain that does not hurt
Who told you about a love that turns to dirt

Devils
You've got a face-to-face with your
Devils
You've got a race to race with your
Devils
You've got to find a place among your
Devils
You cannot replace your
Devils
Devils

Who told you about cause and effect
Who told you about a heart that can forget
Who told you about fortune and fame
Who told you that the evil has got no name

Devils
You've got a face-to-face with your
Devils
You've got a race to race with your
Devils
You've got to find a place among your
Devils
You cannot replace your
Devils
You can't deny
Devils
They'll get you in the night

Who told you
Who told you

Devils
You've got a face-to-face with your
Devils
You've got a race to race with your

Devils
You've got to find a place among your
Devils
You cannot replace your
Devils

You can't deny

Devils

They'll get you in the night

Devils

You gotta ride on your rage with your

Devils

You gotta ride on your rage with your

Devils

You gotta ride on your rage with your devils
