You put one foot right down the wrong way
You flirt around (she knows about it)
You say I'm only dreaming and I dream of only you
You sleep around (she knows about it)

So please don't think she's a helpless child
Please don't think the floors circularly tiled
She's been walking on the wild side for a while
She's been playing without you (and guess what?)

She ain't missing you at all (She ain't missing you)
She's having a ball (Baby she don't care)
Did you know she got her high heels on?
And she's boogying on down when you're not there
She ain't missing you at all (She ain't missing you)
She's having a ball (Baby she don't care)
Did you know she got her high heels on?
And she's having the time of her life

You throw her just out on the doorstep
Then you sneak out through the backdoor (She knows about it)
You think everybody does it and its good to be wild
And she'll never ever find out (She knows about it)

So please don't think that she's so naive
Please don't think that she cries when you leave
She's been walking on the wild side for a while
She's been playing without you (and guess what?)

She ain't missing you at all (She ain't missing you)
She's having a ball (Baby she don't care)
Did you know she got her high heels on?
And she's boogying on down when you're not there
She ain't missing you at all (She ain't missing you)
She's having a ball (Baby she don't care)
Did you know she got her high heels on?
And she's having the time, time of her life

Forgot the time she cried
Forgot the time she said her hands were tied
She lied, she ain't missing you

She ain't missing you at all (She ain't missing you)
she's having a ball (Baby she don't care)
Did you know she got her high heels on?
And she's boogying on down when you're not there
She ain't missing you at all (She ain't missing you)
She's having a ball (Baby she don't care)
Did you know she got her high heels on?
And she's having the time of her life

She ain't missing you at all (She ain't missing you)
she's having a ball (Baby she don't care)
Did you know she got her high heels on?
And she's boogying on down when you're not there
She ain't missing you at all (She ain't missing you)
She's having a ball (Baby she don't care)
Did you know she got her high heels on?
And she's having the time of her life
