You are entering the White Room
That's the password
And you can leave your hang-ups at the door now
Coz this is the White Room
My asylum
And you are welcome
Look at all you pretty people
Walking past my eyes
The room is getting smaller
There's a bright light deep inside
My toes are curling upwards
And my shoes have left my feet
They took away my velvet chair
And my name is obsolete
But hell we get dreamy, yeah
Delicious we can be happy, yeah
So happy I've been thinking about you, yeah
And if you wanna come...
And if you wanna come in
You've got to knock three times
You are entering the White Room
Yeah that's the password
And you can leave your hang-ups at the door now
Coz this is the White Room
My asylum
And you are welcome
Good Heavens! I don't know how you got here,
Did you sneak inside my head?
Did you say a few sweet words and sneak inside my bed?
Look at this huge big pillow
Come and lay your mind
And walk inside my crooked thought
And see what fun you find
Oh hell we can get dreamy, yeah
Delicious we can be happy, yeah
So happy I've been thinking about you, yeah
And if you wanna come...
And if you wanna come in
You've got to knock three times
You are entering the White Room

Yeah that's the password
And you can leave your hang-ups at the door now
Coz this is the White Room
My Asylum
And you are welcome
Positively spiritual
Definitely sexual
Could it be I'm cynical?
Or could it be I
Well I, like I said
Override
Setisfide
Our love hits on the red
'Til you show me that secret weapon
That shoots my fears all dead?
This is the White Room
My asylum
And you are welcome
And you can leave your hang-ups at the door now
My asylum
And you are welcome
Coz you are entering the White Room...White Room
Yeah that's the password...that's the password
And you can leave your hang-ups at the door now
My asylum
