Interstellar collapse
Left only coma behind
Antenatal Injustice
Brought me back to life

And so she danced under anthracite skies
Unconscious of carniwhorish eyes...

Those crestfallen travesties
Tried to umpire her empire
It was the genesis of nemesis,
From pride they succumbed to tyranny

For long did she thrive amongst them
True fiends of whole mankind
She was only a woman, lovelorn
Suffering from forlorn love

... That sought her for the seditious lies
Onslaught filled with antagonistic cries
(Repeat)

Apocalypse scale genocide
She stood appall by my side
Gates to hell blazing open wide
Calling the name of my bride

She crested that night libeler's lexicon in her hand
She swept down a third of the stars of heaven
Like the Beast with seven diadems
Paragon of benevolence betoken forthcoming darkness

Apocalypse scale genocide
She stood appall by my side
Gates to hell blazing open wide
Calling the name of my bride

And so she danced under anthracite skies
Intrigue no longer stayed underground
