My lip will ask this heart
Force me to go this strange way
This time this soul of mine
Was looking for the sun rise
I sail a cross the sea
I pass so many country's Until I found the key
To see what's inside me

I'm back in you're arms
At last I found my heaven
I waited for so long
But now I'm coming home
I'm back in you're arms
At last I found my heaven
I waited for so long
But now I'm coming home

I tried so many times
To find the right direction
Someone who teach me how
To handle my affection
But now I recognize
The hope that ever happen
Wasn't in it's way quite right
There isn't in a life

I'm back in you're arms
At last I found my heaven
I waited for so long
But now I'm coming home
I'm back in you're arms
At last I found my heaven
I waited for so long
But now I'm coming home
