There's a story I've got to tell you
Be ready, I'm gonna tell the truth
It seems you were my enemy
You know you kept me under lock and key

Ref.
Everytime I look at your face,
I see it's calling my name,
Why does it hurt me so bad?
Everytime I look at your face,
Your eyes are burning with hate,
Why don't you just get away?
This thing is blowing up my mind
How could this happen in my life?
You're just a liar, nothing more...
I was a Prisoner, now I'm free to go

Ref.
Everytime I look at your face...

Everytime I look at your face...

There's a story I've got to tell you
Beware, I'm gonna tell the truth
You are a liar, nothing more
I was a fool, now I'm on the run

Ref.
Everytime I look at your face... (x2)
