oh'

5 in the mornin'
Lights in the window he just got home
14 hours: how long he been gone
Not that I was counting
But he said he'd only be gone for 3
Now 3 done come and gone
I think anybody can see what's going on
He walks in smelling like her cheap perfume
Smiling at me talkin' bout "what's wrong wit' you?"

Boy nice try (baby, nice try)
Really thought that you could play me
Baby, ain't nobody, ain't nobody stupid
No, ain't nobody, ain't nobody stupid
Say goodbye (Say goodbye baby)
'cause it's time for you to leave cuz baby
Ain't nobody, ain't nobody stupid
Ain't nobody, ain't nobody stupid

He said, "baby hold on" (hold on)
"You know I was out with Tango and Carter and started drinking trippin' all that I had was Carona"
Baby slow down
There ain't no lying your way out of this one now (out of this one now)
So I said hey, boy c'mon do I got idiot scribbled across my dome?
You smell like that chick plus Patron
Took a minute but your true colors have shown

Boy nice try (nice try)
Really thought that you could play me
Baby, ain't nobody, Ain't nobody stupid,
No, ain't nobody, ain't nobody stupid
Say goodbye (Say goodbye baby)
'cause it's time for you to leave cuz baby
Ain't nobody, ain't nobody stupid
No, ain't nobody, ain't nobody stupid

Baby I been around for a little while

Had my share of playing games
But I put my games away so I could be the one for you
And there ain't nothing you can say that I ain't heard before
Boy, your lies all sound the same
But I had my last cry today
Look what you made me do
And I still must say

Boy nice try (boy nice try)
Really thought that you could play me
Baby, ain't nobody, Ain't nobody stupid,
No, ain't nobody, ain't nobody stupid
Say goodbye (Say goodbye)
'cause it's time for you to leave cuz baby
Ain't nobody, ain't nobody stupid
No, ain't nobody, ain't nobody stupid

Boy nice try (nice try)
Really thought that you could play me
Baby, ain't nobody, Ain't nobody stupid
No, ain't nobody, ain't nobody stupid
Say goodbye (Say goodbye)
Yes it's time for you to leave cuz baby
Ain't nobody, ain't nobody stupid
No, ain't nobody, ain't nobody stupid
No!
