(Aye) Usually I'm not the type to stress you About spending time, calling, things that I'm used to But we both know things have changed and (It's like I) Bend over over backwards can't justify your absence
(Hey) I get no answer machine comes on leaving messages (hey)
Now the tables turn you reaching out to me, can't get a hold of me

Yeah I see your missed calls
I bet you pissed off because I did not answer
R. Kelly already told ya'll it's only so long Before a woman gets fed up
So is it that you miss me?
Or do you miss me missing you?
Sometimes it hurts to hear the truth baby

Funny how you wanna spend time now that I gotta get back to you
Ain't nobody got time to be running round here chasing
after you
And you wanna have the nerve to be mad that I gotta
get back to you
But let me get back to you (back to you)
At my earliest convenience

Now you got plenty conversation
Once you realized I ran out of patience
And the things I used to do I'm not doing no more What you take me for?
(I'm not) Available at your convenience
Coming over just when you need it When I see your call I just hit ignore ain't that how you did it?

Yeah I see your missed calls
I bet you pissed off because I did not answer
R. Kelly already told ya'll it's only so long Before a woman gets fed up
So is it that you miss me?
Or do you miss me missing you?

Sometimes it hurts to hear the truth baby
Funny how you wanna spend time now that I gotta get
back to you
Ain't nobody got time to be running round here chasing
after you
And you wanna have the nerve to be mad that I gotta
get back to you
But let me get back to you (back to you)
At my earliest convenience

I'm not bitter, just fed up To the point I don't wanna hear nothing from you Didn't take advantage when you had my love
And I'm tired of you coming with the same excuse Never knowing what you got till what you got is gone I ain't tripping over you boy I'm moving on That's why every time you call You ain't never getting through boy I ain't stressing you Funny how you wanna spend time now that I gotta get
back to you
Ain't nobody got time to be running round here chasing
after you
And you wanna have the nerve to be mad that I gotta
get back to you
But let me get back to you (back to you)
At my earliest convenience
Funny how you wanna spend time now that I gotta get
back to you
Ain't nobody got time to be running round here chasing
after you
And you wanna have the nerve to be mad that I gotta
get back to you
But let me get back to you (back to you)
At my earliest convenience

Gotta get back to you (back to you)
Here chasing after you (after you) Gotta get back to you
But let me get back to you (back to you)
At my earliest convenience

I'll holla
