Watch me peeling the back seat
Vinyl, denim, and cottony
Strokes and strobes enlight me
Disembodied headlights on the road

Playing peace on the radio
Hiss and clicks out of tempo
Cars buzz by and let go
Let them keep me safe,
Let them carry the load

Let them take it away from everything
Untill I want it back again

It's a lifetime of concrete
Some move faster on the street
Metal crosses mark the last scene
Our friends we've never ever known before

Let them take it away from everything
Cause I don't care to know
Where this path will go
I just want to know if I will live to see
The sunlight every day

Carry the load
Let them take it away from everything
Until I want it back again
