Aggression is taking over our captivated bodies
I'll fuck your system,
Neglected your thoughts to dominate my own
Panicked of all this shit, paralyzed by anger
Into the depths I'm trying to sell my life away to vanity

We are descending, disturbing
A life of innocence,
Reaching for a way to bind ourselves into one
We all look the same, we pretend, we fake
The lies of sorrow strained
Mesmerized the grief to fade away
Into a locked up era

Reality seems binding
The truth of all this seems deafening
Fading away, a prophecy that will not stay

Caged inside
The way you see I used to be
No way this life of vile will damn me here
I'll find the truth in loneliness,
I'll breach the void of silence
Uncovered vastness to free us all

Time passes by, nothing is changing,
A frustrating mind kind
My life is torn apart in a digital structure
