I never noticed how my heart beats out loud when I
Think of you
And I can't focus now
Got my head up the clouds when I
Think of you

My heart's so lost in all the chaos
It's got me crazy
With the spell you cast
It all happened so fast

Goodbye, to loneliness
And when I close my eyes
You play like a movie in my mind

You are the star of my daydreams
Everything you are is my reverie
Can you feel my heart when you moving closer and closer

And you are the star of my daydreams
Everything you are is my reverie
Can you feel my heart when you moving closer and closer

Oh I think that we
That we are meant to be

Everything you do is so fresh and brand new that I Can't help
This crush on you I want to be the breakthrough
Kind of love to you

Sparks are flying like butterflies
And I'm so high
With the spell you cast
It all happened so fast
Goodbye to loneliness

And when I close my eyes
You play like a movie in my mind
And I want to rewind,

Over and over a thousand times

You are the star of my daydreams
Everything you are is my reverie
Can you feel my heart when you moving closer and closer

Oh I think that we
That we are meant to be

Oh I think that we
That we are meant to be

Oh I think that we
That we are meant to be

You are the star of my daydreams
Everything you are is my reverie
closer

You are the star of my daydreams
Everything you are is my reverie
Can you feel my heart

Oh I think that we
That we are meant to be
In my daydreams
