I am always here when you
Can't find or choose your way
Go quietly I try to guide you
Without you realising it
Here I try to save you
Even if I often fight you
Here I try to guide you
Without changing your main way
Here I try to tell you
All the dangers you can't see
Here I try to help you
When I see you so confused
The right side of reason
Tries to guide you on your way
The right side of reason
Tries to guide you through the days
When I see you so confused
When I feel you so despaired
So quietly I guide you
Trying to find a better way
