No more dreams in this place
Only birds are flying now
No more tears and no more joy
Weeds and rocks are lying
Everywhere on this ground
How could I forget tears?
How could I forget joy?
They gave me life here
And I stay here to pay homage
Why does everything seem dead?
How is the soul now?
Why does it stay there?
'Cause no more tears and no more joy
Out of feelings - no more beings
No more trees in this place
Only spiders running on the ground
No more leaves and no more flowers
Nothing's growing here anymore on this ground
