When I was just a small little girl.
I saw true love in my Father's eyes.
I have not seen such caring since then.
Your actions have only spoken lies.

How could you know true love?
All you do is try to get even with me.
I was not the one who messed up your life.
Oh well-another one is set free. One more is set free.

You did not pay our bill but said you went to work.
So I almost froze to death you sorry jerk.
My dog loved me more that you ever did.
So you are no man or my protector.
To me you are nothing but dirt.
To me you are nothing but hurt.
Good bye dirt. No more hurt.
