If a simple melody
Could change everything
I would never ever ever ever stop singing
If a simple melody can make you mine
I will always always always always find the time

If my time means anything to you
You should let me know
Cause I never ever ever know
What you're thinking about? Are you thinking of me?
Cause I'm thinking of you eternally

I'm sick but you made me new
I'm hopelessly in love with everything you do
What you do to me is beyond words
I never thought I'd say, "I love you so much it hurts" it hurts

A simple melody... hmm

A simple melody
Could change everything
It what makes the whole world keeps spinning
A simple melody can make you mine
We could be together for all time

But if time means anything to us we should treat it as gold
Cause we never ever ever know
What will happen to us? What will come in the end?
But one thing's for sure love will mend

So clap

I'm sick but you made me new
I'm hopelessly in love with everything you do
But then suddenly everything changed
Now I know I will love you for all my days, my days everybody

My days, my days, my days...
