Verse 1:

Sun comes up, tide goes out, a new day begins
Palm trees sway, as children play, in the sand
Seagulls fly, across the sky, two by two
Another perfect day for missin' you

Chorus:

I don't see know hope on the horizon
I can't feel no changes in the wind
And even though it is the only thing, that I have to do
Another perfect day for missin' you

Verse 2:

Pretty girls, golden tans, passin' by
I just see, your auburn hair, and emerald eyes
But I can't complain, it never rains, it's always blue
Another perfect day for missin' you

(Chorus)

And even though it is the only thing, that I have to do
Another perfect day for missin' you
