There was never a doubt if I could just hold out,
This is how good love could be
I'd find that special someone lucky me,

I always knew it could happen if
I could only hold on to my heart,
We'd be together forever and never part

I've been saving, saving my love for you,
I've been waiting for the right one to give it to,
All of my life I've dreamed of this day,
When I'd give my heart away,
And to who, I've been saving, saving my love for you

There's always that once in a lifetime
When a love like this comes along,
When something that feels so right just can't be wrong,
That's how I feel today,
A love this strong will never fade away

I've been saving, saving my love for you,
I've been waiting for the right one to give it to,
All of my life I've dreamed of this day,
When I'd give my heart away,
And to who, I've been saving, saving my love for you

All of my life I've dreamed of this day
When I'd give my heart away,
And to who, I've been saving, saving my love for you,
I've been saving, saving my love for you
