

Brian Burns

"A Cowboy's Prayer"

Visit "A Cowboy's Prayer" on MotoLyrics.com

Lord I know I told you many years ago
That all I ever wanted was to ride on a rodeo
If you give me the courage to make that long hard ride
I'd wanna be a cowboy till I die

Well I've pumped heads with every wild bull from Dallas to Cheyenne And every time I hit the dirt well I got back on again
But now I'm down here hopein'
I don't let you down
I think it's time we turned my life around

Lord I've travelled
Many lonely miles
Take my saddle
Let me rest a while
My heart is weary
And my bones are sore
And I don't want to be a cowboy anymore

There's a girl in St. Antone
The one I left behind
When riding for the money
Was the first thing on my mind
I'm hopein' she'll forgive me
For making that mistake
'Cause all I want now is the love she makes

Lord I've travelled
Many lonely miles
Take my saddle
Let me rest a while
My heart is weary
And my bones are sore
And I don't want to be a cowboy anymore

My heart is weary
And my bones are sore
Hang my trophies in the hall of fame

Tell all the ladies to remember my name
I don't wanna be a cowboy anymore

Visit Brian Burns page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.

MotoLyrics.com | Lyrics, music videos, artist biographies, releases and more.