I don't know if I'm doing right
And I don't care if I lose the fight
But I can't go against what I feel
Cause this love's tearing me apart

All the blood and the tears I cried
All the pain and the scars I hide
You've been crushing my body and soul
Is this love? I don't wanna know

Cause now I'm free
And I have freed my mind
But now I'm free
Free to feel alive, yeah

So give me up
Don't need my love
I know you'll never stop breaking my heart
So give me up
Don't need my love
So leave me alone

Now it's time for me to decide
Now it's time for me to decide

All the years I've been put aside
Now it's time for me to decide
Eye for eye baby, now I am strong
And my freedom's behind that door

Had me blind so I couldn't see
The woman I was supposed to be
No regrets, now there's no turning back
And it's time for this b*tch to leave.

I just wanna dream alive, dream alive
I don't wanna love you
I just wanna dream alive, dream alive
I don't wanna hurt you

So give me up

Don't need my love
I know you'll never stop breaking my heart
So give me up
Don't need my love
So leave me alone

Now it's time for me to decide
Now it's time for me to decide

I just wanna dream alive, dream alive
I don't wanna love you
I just wanna dream alive, dream alive
I don't wanna hurt you

Cause now I am free
And I have freed my mind
But now I am free, yeah
Free to feel alive

So give me up
Don't need my love
I know you'll never stop breaking my heart
Give me up
Don't need my love
So leave me alone,
[x2]

Now it's time for me to decide

Dream alive, I dream alive
Dream alive, I dream alive
