You didn't get much emotional stability
From you first marriage
You moved to Paris
And let him reshape you

Into the mold of his ex-wife
Bridget Bardo
As a so called sex kitten
In several of his films including:

Barbarella
I never thought I was good enough to say
Barbarella
I want to be enough for you
Barbarella
It hurts me when you need other women
Barbarella

You write that you loved him
But that off screen
He made you a plaything
Inviting other women into your bed

You took a lot of dexatrin
To be perky for this or that film scene
Did people not really notice
Or did the notice and just not say anything
