

Paul Baribeau

"My Autobiography"

Visit "My Autobiography" on MotoLyrics.com

When I was fourteen I wanted to move
To seattle, and hang out with Nirvana

And when I was fifteen, I wanted to move
Into a basement, the deepest darkest basement

And when I was sixteen I wanted to move
To New York City in 1977

But Now I'm twenty-two, and all I wanna do, is hang out with you

When I was seventeen I wanted to move
To California and be a surfer

When I was eighteen I wanted to move

Into my own head and finally get some work done

And when I was 19, oh I wanted to move
Anywhere but my parents house

But now I'm twenty two, and all I want to do, is hang out
with you

When I was 20 I moved into an apartment in Grand Haven, oh what was I thinking?

When I was 21, well lets not talk about 21!

Because now I'm 22, and all I wanna do, is hang out
with you.

Visit Paul Baribeau page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.