Do you remember Christmas break?
We hung out almost every day,
And I can honestly say I fell back in love with you.
Your hair is my favorite, sometimes I really miss it,
Maybe I'm being stupid or just a little sentimental.
I know you've made some new friends,
And I have made some new friends,
And we've still got the old friends,
We still got each other,
So when you go back to college try and send me a letter,

And I'll try to come visit but I work so much this semester.
I always liked your smile, and I always loved your laugh,
And the first time that we hung out you let me hold your hand,
Your red hair is my favorite,
Now I know I'm gonna miss it.
Maybe I'll try and visit but everything is gonna be different.
