Another night to say:
Things are about to change, is it forever?
Another game to play
When we hare a world together

Open your eyes and believe me
You gotta live and dream again
Still catching the sun as you're gliding
Uohoh!

Ev'ry night you take my heart
Into the stars and ev'rywhere
I dream to see you back
When I return but you're not there
Ev'ry night I feel you smile
And I can't stop be similing too
So tell me how, today
I'll find the way to be with you, every night

Pictures in black and white
Bridging you from the past into the future
I want you now to try
To be always "you" forever
