Got a trip to the moon, all the cats now are singing and Dancing

Trip to the moon.
Got a trip to the moon

Got a trip to the moon all the cats now are singing and Dancing, to get me through you

I don't mind what they'll do.

With elastical madness will cover the sky

And they know for sure what it is brown

(Don't you feel brown?)

In the clear floor is freezing
The blueness arrives
But we are sure that won't take you away

You'll be surprise 'cause bubbles should rise

You'll be surprise,
Bubbles should rise.
