From the start you were first

He loves you at your worst

He'll do anything, a father

He shows you what love is

Saw your dreams before you did

He'll give everything, like your Heavenly Father

I see God in my father's eyes, I see God

A father's like the Father in the way he loves you

A father's like the Father when he carries you through

I am my father's daughter as I'm loving another

See love from my Father in Heaven

Through the eyes of my father on Earth

A strong hand as your guide

Feel his strength by your side

He'll give anything, a father

Feels your pain when you do

Has the words to give you

He is everything, like your Heavenly Father

I see love in my father's eyes, I see love

A father's like the Father in the way he loves you

A father's like the Father when he carries you through

I am my father's daughter as I'm loving another

See love from my Father in Heaven

Through the eyes of my father on Earth

I see God in my father's eyes, I see God

A father's like the Father in the way he loves you

A father's like the Father when he carries you through

I am my father's daughter as I'm loving another

See love from my Father in Heaven

Through the eyes of my father on Earth

Through the eyes of my father on Earth

Through the eyes of my father on Earth
