so the time expired
the desire went out of date there's no use of fixing anything because it's way too late would you please

go on and leave
cause maybe it won't be ok turn off the light that was gonna die anyway

i took the bullets
but you can't symphatize even when blank shots could tear me inside

all we had is shattered
nothing really matters

to me or to you now love won't stay forever and you should know it better you should know it better now
