Indiana was right
When she told us tonight
Not to fight anymore.
Indiana was never wrong
When she came along to
Sing this song

How could I forget about you?
How could I forget about you, tonight? X2

Indiana started telling us now.
We've done so bad,
We can all take a bow.
How could I forget about you?
She always knew it was true.
I always knew even tonight.
That Indiana was right.

Indiana was right
When she told us tonight
Not to fight anymore.
Indiana was never wrong
When she came along to
Sing this song

How could I forget about you?
How could I forget about you, tonight?
How could I forget about you?
How could I forget about you, tonight?
Indiana never tried
Because she new inside.
We were perfect for each other
Indiana was always there.
Even when I gave you a mocking stare.
She knew we would be together forever.

How could I forget about you?
How could I forget about you, tonight?
How could I forget about you?
How could I forget about you, tonight?

Indiana was right

When she told us tonight
Not to fight anymore.
Indiana was never wrong
When she came along to
Sing this song.

How could I forget about you,
How could I forget about you, tonight?
How could I forget about you,
How could I forget about you, tonight?
About Indiana tonight?
About Indiana tonight?
