As long as I've known you, honey I've loved you
And I'm gonna try to tell you tonight
Knees don't you fail me, heart don't you scare me.
I've never been this sure in all of my life

As long as I've felt it, baby I've held it
Close to my chest, in the back of my heart
And girl I'm done waiting, no hesitating
No more not sayin' wherever you are

I always knew you were out there somewhere
If you take me with you, I'll go anywhere
If the world turns against me, it's all worth the fight
As long as you love me, I'll be alright
As long as you love me, I'll be alright

As long as you're with me, the more that you kiss me
The wilder and deeper my love for you grows
Baby I mean it, it's just like I dreamed it
I'm gonna love you forever and more

I always knew you were out there somewhere
If you take me with you, I'll go anywhere
If the world turns against me, it's all worth the fight
As long as you love me, I'll be alright
As long as you love me, I'll be alright
As long as you love me, I'll be alright
