Boy I gotta funny feeling which is not for real and that
you're only
Playing games
Cause every time you kiss me really something is missing,
Tell has something changed?
Could there be that you got someone new?
Who could treat you better than I do?
I used to be playing a fool. Boy you better let me know?

Cause I'm hearing from my friends stories about you
stepping out
With someone who holding hands and it's filling me
with doubt
Tell me what I did for you to make you want to cheat on
me
Does she love you like I do and is she worth in losing
me?

Has someone taken my place?
Has someone going to fill the space?
Does she love you and would she be true?
Does she treat you better than the way I do?

Has someone taken my place?
Has someone going to fill the space?
Does she love you and would she be true?
Does she treat you better than the way I do?

Now I know that you been lying as you're denying why
would you have to lie
To me.
I never thought that you would, never thought that you could go-on on a Ramp on me.

Why should have to go on be so cruel even after all that we been through.
I will never do these things to you
Boy you better let me know

Cause I'm hearing from my friends stories about you

stepping out
With someone who holding hands and it's filling me
with doubt
Tell me what I did for you to make you want to cheat on
me
Does she love you like I do and is she worth in losing
me?

Has someone taken my place?
Has someone going to fill the space?
Does she love you and would she be true?
Does she treat you better than the way I do?

Has someone taken my place?
Has someone going to fill the space?
Does she love you and would she be true?
Does she treat you better than the way I do?

Yo, excuse me while I lace this track with a rap
Don't need to be rude by coming in the gap
Would you know I got a foe when it comes to rhymes?
Don't need for pen or paper just read on what's on my mind.

So here we go, yo
We're live in up the show
We rock in this jam like we know that we can
So put your hands together and reach the sky with LT
and Lizzie come girl
Let's fly.

Has someone taken my place?
Has someone going to fill the space?
Does she love you and would she be true?
Does she treat you better than the way I do?

Has someone taken my place?
Has someone going to fill the space?
Does she love you and would she be true?
Does she treat you better than the way I do?

Has someone taken my place?

Boy I gotta funny feeling which is not for real and that
you're only
Playing games

Has someone going to fill the space?
Does she love you and would she be true?
Does she treat you better than the way I do?

Has someone taken my place?

Now I know that you been lying as you're denying why
would you have to lie
To me.

Has someone going to fill the space?
Does she love you and would she be true?
Does she treat you better than the way I do?
