Yesterday you were a face without a name
Just another player in the game
Now here we are with each other left to blame
Ain't it funny how it always ends the same

I give you what you want
But you just couldn't stay
The girl of your dreams just slipped away
I give you what you need
I don't know how to say
The girls of your dreams just slipped away

I told you things I never thought I'd say
Just to keep you here another day
But in the end you were leaving anyway
Who am I to make you stay

We could've set the world on fire
But you put out the flame
You thought that I would fade away
And nothings left the same
