Remember, I had your back and you had mine
Back when, I thought we'd stand the test of time
But you would listen to those stories and swallow other peoples' worries
Now it's, you watch your back and you stab mine

You go your way, I'll go my way
We've all got our wars to fight
But if you try to, you won't catch me
I'm gone at the speed of light.

What happened, to all of us against the world
We'd show them, that we were more than little girls,
And just when the light at the end of the tunnel is An oncoming train we all ran for cover
Oh well, I never let you drag me down.

You go your way, I'll go my way
We've all got our wars to fight
But if you try to, you won't catch me
I'm gone at the speed of light.
I'll go my way, you go your way
I've still got my war to fight
But if you come back, you won't find me
I'm gone at the speed of light.

I never wanted this to end
But now I know who were my real friends
For me it's not the end
Now I won't play no I won't play pretend
Can you see me, I'm standing and I'll never fall
I came out fighting, with my back against the wall
