Our love is drifting, baby, I can see it day by day
Our love is drifting, baby, I can see it day by day
I know you don't care now, little baby, but I let you have your way

If you leave, my baby, you know the pain won't last too long
If you leave, my baby, you know the pain won't last too
long
It's not the first time little girl your old man been messed around

I love you, baby, you know I tell the whole world I do Yes, I love you, baby, I'll tell the whole wide world I do You know there ain't nothing, ain't nothing little girl Yes, that I wouldn't do for you

Yes, I worked hard all my life, baby, I gave you everything I had I worked hard all my life, baby, I gave you everything I had It's too late, it's too late now, baby, you know our good love's gone bad
