

Broken Melody

"Dark And Light"

Seasons of mist and emotions
Blurry visions of the future
Winds of time, caress me
Under the fingers of my hand
Scrolls the verses of my life
Close yet from the past

Lost emotions
Feel the future
Love the sensation
A growing life

So, hold me tonight
My sweet lady moonlight
So, hold and keep me tight
In these days of dark & light

I put my feet on a snowy path
So heavy to face and hard to go
Without a trace of what I did
Day by day in this stormy world
Where the good and the bad seems the same thing
I build and choose my own faith

Lost emotions
Feel the future
Burning ambitions
No one who care

Do what you do and choose what you want
My life is a strange attraction
Dark & Light, painful or divine
Let your life, choose for your days
