"It's So Blue"

Down the stairs
The basement door
Where the two of us
Have met before
Orange sheets
Orange phone
Purple pillow
We're all alone

In the heat
Of the afternoon
On your sheets
In your room
It's so blue
This afternoon
I'll come to you
I'll be there soon

Another time
Another place
Another smile
On another face
Different story
Different name
Make believe
But it's not the same

In the heat
Of the afternoon
On your sheets
In your room
It's so blue
This afternoon
I'll come to you
I'll be there soon
