And I can't go on believing all the stories that you named
After past presidents
No I will not be convinced of the lies you told
The lack of pretense there is no defense

1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8
Beat the wall, don't beat the gate
And wait until it's hinged
Beg to be forgiven

But come out and see the field of geese
Wind 'round our knees
As we sit and sigh and scheme

But I won't be left here again
I won't be left here again
Cause you're a daylover
A daylover again
And you're a good daylover
A good daylover again

You're a daylover
You're a daylover
You're a daylover
You're a daylover
Yeah you're a daylover
