All of my time just wasted thoughts.
Trying to make sense of this pain you've brought.
But much of this world seems all too sure.
So happy to know what they're waiting for.

Oh beautiful view
They say you are the dream come true.
Beautiful view.
Why am I afraid of you?

Good-bye to the memories I adore.
And for the last time they're all before me.
All the friends I've made,
And the friends I've lost.

Oh beautiful view
They say you are the dream come true.
Beautiful view.
Why am I afraid of you?
Beautiful view.
If all lies have a bitter truth,
Beautiful view,
Why should I believe in you?

Good-bye to the memories I adore.
All the friends I've made,
And the ones I've lost.

Oh beautiful view
They say you are the dream come true.
Beautiful view.
Then why am I afraid of you?
Beautiful view.
If all lies have a bitter truth,
Beautiful view,
Why should I believe in you?
