(Vs. 1)

He gathers scattered children
In less than an hour
Makes pictures for the blind's eyes
And sings for deaf ears

All while talking to the wildflowers
The wild, wildflowers

(Chorus)

Come out of your houses all you animals and people
We thought it'd never rain! We thought it'd never rain!
Now watch the town well flooding like fifty hurricanes
Oh, we thought it'd never rain

(Vs. 2)

When the Devil looked me in the face
And called me a coward
"I don't think I'll get out of bed today"
Was my response when I forgot

The Man talking to the wildflowers
The wild, wildflowers

(Bridge)

How marvelous the wind!
