I'm a simple guy it's a long road
I've never wanted much but what I have I don't let go
When I met you love you took my breath away
You turn heads in the street your beauty radiates
I'm not a jealous guy and I want you to know baby
I don't mind where you go
As long as you come home to me
Well I'm a little older maybe you're a little young
I'm a settle downer you're a restless heart
Girl I'll give you space I won't follow you
And I'll give you trust and I'll wait at home to you Cause I'm not a jealous guy and I want you to know baby
I don't mind where you go
As long as you come home to me
My friends say it's time but I've no wish to find another love
But baby I'm no fool, you're talking in your sleep
You can't hide the truth
So I whisper to you unfaithfulness is cruel
I'm a simple guy and I promised you
I'd love you 'till you die but baby I'm no fool
Yeah I'll give you time I won't tie a string
But If you got another lover I'll pack up all my things
And you'll have yourself to blame
For not doing the right thing by me
