Well you know I'm not ready but baby come on I'm never gonna be the kind who'll
Always hold the ship steady
I'm strong when I'm around weaker people
But you know I'm glad just to be part
Just to be here on this journey with you
And you know I'm not ready but baby come on Come on baby come on Ready a word I've never carried a concept not familiar
My dreams are spread around around Steady a description that's defied me but I long it would describe me
My paper's scattered all around around around Hungry but I cannot reach the table I'd move if I was able
I'm a punch drunk and lonely clown
See the moon it's full as I wish I was it travels such a distance
With purpose and persistence like I want to be unto you Like I want to be to you
Like I want to be unto you
Like I want to crown you with my love
Like I want to crown you with a love that's real
