"Fill My Cup"

Come on you lately come on and rescue me
Been at you lately but I've been more at me
Love is a lesson I never learned at school
Sick in bed that day and so I play your fool
Sick of this sea-saw of going up and down
Promised consistency to you in my wedding vow
Call me up whisper in my ear
Fell like a calendar from another year
Fill my cup to the top with running water
Call me out and show me how
Talk to me without manipulation
Shoot from the hip you'll shock the congregation
Wake me up whenever supper's ready
Break bread and wine but still I'm feeling empty
You gotta show me how show me how
I feel light I could float up to you weights and all
I feel like a bridge on the water connecting your shore
Start me up and let me fly with you
