You want to know what I see
When I pray and I bow on my knees?
A grand design, a master plan
There's a sea of broken people
An empty church and a crooked steeple
They say I'm a fool
If I say He's going to save me

Well you say all the world has Rejected truth and all that God has Set aside for us to be
And if I am his reflection
With all my imperfections
I can't call myself
Anything but just forgiven

Pray with me one more time tonight
Pray we'll be walking in the light of love

And if you say that Jesus is alive
Then he's walking right there by your side
Why do you ask WWJD?
I want to take the walls of the church
Knock them down and build a bridge across
The valley we created
Man's religion crucified Him

Pray with me one more time tonight
Pray we'll be walking in the light of love
Pray that we're not the ones to judge
Pray with me one more time tonight
Pray that we all would be one and
Pray that our friendships would warm like the sun
And pray that we'd stop judging each other
We've got to hold together
A house divided can't stand the weather
We can stand as one
