All this time I see,
Finally I see, eventually
A place that's meant for me,
Created just for me to be.

Tell me where to go, tell me where to go.
I'll be there before, be there before you know.

I was looking high and low,
And every place I know I go.
Throughout the times alone,
You were right here all along you know.

Tell me where to go, tell me where to go.

I'll be there before, be there before you know.

So finally you got me.
Don't be letting go see,
This is the real me,
And this is where I am free.
Finally you got me.
Don't be letting go see.
This is the real me,
And this is where I am free.

It took it's time to come,
But got here in the end.
The end.
