So crowded, over crowded.
Find me some room to move.

So twisted, so blistered.
Give me some room to unwind.

Release the valve, release the pressure.
I'll blow my veins, It's in my nature.
Coming up too fast and I can not find,
My decompression chamber.

So different, so completely different.
Give me something to relate to please.

Release the valve, release the pressure.
I'll blow my veins; It's in my nature.
Coming up too fast and I can not find,
My decompression chamber.

What are you trying to say to me?
It's always, always me.

Coming up too fast and I can not find,
My decompression chamber.
Release the pressure, to make me better,
Release the pressure,
To make me well enough to be myself,
To laugh, to smile, to breathe a while.
To cry to be just true to me,
I long to be myself.
