Lookout motherfucker comin' at you like a buckshot, don't Ask me why, my hatred will not stop. Why do I hate? I ask Myself the same, call it fucked up but it's all in my Brain

Hatred is something you learn, not what you are born with Hatred is something you learn, not what you are born
with Hatred is something you learn, not what you are born
with Hatred is something you learn, not what you are born
with

I've walked hard every where I've gone, New Jack suckers
Are scared to say hello, if you think that you are hard Then take a stand and prove that you're a man.
And what the fuck do you think that you are gonna do...
Bulldoze will split your skull in two.
Growing up pain was my best friend, things have changed
For no apparent reason, my hearts turned to ICE, don't Ask me why, just stay on your back, and look at the sky.
Growing up pain was my best friend, things have
changed
For no apparent reason, my hearts turned to ICE, don't Ask me why, just stay on your back, and look at the sky.
