Times dont remain the same frienemies came and went family remained To all those who live the same Side by side the few the deep remain.

No surrender raised that way fear no foe stand tall till in a ditch I lay Bare the signs carved in with pain Crippling my soul so cold hard remained.
How could you forget your family so quick what you did cut me so deep Straight like a arrow threw my hearts blood vein
You cant be trusted ever again.

The only certainty after birth is we all gonna die and one day my time will come, dont want anyone to cry.

cos I'm taking all of you fakes out with me Aint nowhere you can hide
No place left to run.
Your dun.

When they say jump we dont say how high we say fuck you for thinking well lay down and die LBU New blood soldiers ready LBU soldados we're ready.
