Trouble hangs around my head
It's safer not to leave my bed
I'll just live my life through books
Cause I hear the real thing has a pretty bleak outlook

If trouble hangs around then alright
When trouble comes home ruins lives

Trouble rents a house near me
All I need is a hell-raising neighbour
Copied me a brand-new key
I would like to resist but I don't think I'm able

If trouble hangs around then alright

When trouble comes home ruins lives

Down down down down
Down down down down
Down down down down
Down down down down

Ruby says I am no fun
But I'd be 'round the block before she had come along
If I'm not in bed by closing time
Send for the calvary

If trouble hangs around then alright
It's when trouble comes home ruins lives

Down down down down...
