Do you understand? We started out as friends, just the best of friends
And then you held my hand, no longer were we friends Cos something happened then Here we go again, I'm running round the bend and I'm letting someone in
Like I always do for you, every time you tell me to

But please don't, please don't, please don't let me
down
I'm feeling so washed out, washed out, I'm feeling so
washed out

There's something in the air, it's been getting all my friends, bringing people in That we could live a lie, yes, we told it all the time, yes, we told it all the time Here we go again, I'm running round the bend and
letting someone in
Like I always do for you, every time you tell me to

down
washed out
Cos I'm so, I'm so I'm so into you
I think you know it's true it's true, you know I'm into you

Here we go again, I'm running round the bend and
letting someone in
Like I always do for you, every time you tell me to

down
washed out
Cos I'm so, I'm so I'm so into you
I think you know it's true it's true, you know I'm into you
