Those times in life we learn to try,
With one intention,
Of learning how and when we'll die,
But we can't listen,
I wish to god I'd known that I,
I didn't stand a chance,
Of looking back and knowing why,
Or pain of circumstance,

You're not alone,
And we'll brave this storm,

So here's my song I wrote in time,
When it was needed,
Through pain of heart or loss of mind,
Your burdens lifted,
You aren't alone just know that I,
Can't save our hearts tonight,

You're not alone,
We'll brave this storm,
And face today,
You're not alone,

You're not alone,
We'll brave this storm,
And face today,
You're not alone,
